SOVIET TROOPS CONTROL LARGE NORTHEAST INDUSTRIES -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao,
6 Jun 51

Taihoku, 5 June -- Today's issue of the only English-language newspaper on Taiwan said that Soviet troops now control the following Chinese Communist state-operated enterprises in the Northeast: the Hsiao-li-man Electric Power Plant, which supplies power to various places in the Northeast and a part of northern Korea; the Fu-shun Coal Mine, second largest in China, and the An-shan Steelworks, the largest in the Far East.

COMMUNISTS TRANSFER TSINGTAO MINE TO USSR -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao,
29 Mar 51

Taihoku, 28 March (Reuters) -- According to a report today from the Chung-lien She, the Chinese Communists have handed over to Moscow the full rights to a mine at Tsingtao which had been in operation prior to the Sino-Japanese War.

The source further stated that Soviet technicians and engineers, numbering 500, have opened the mine, which is located at a certain town about 7 miles outside of Tsingtao, and have also set up an arsenal to produce hand grenades, infantry rifles, light machine guns, and other small arms.

SOVIET PARATROOPERS STATIONED ON CHOU-SHAN ISLANDS -- Hong Kong, Kung-shang Jih-pao. 8 Jun 51

Taihoku, 7 June -- According to an article which appeared today in the only English-language newspaper on Taiwan, the Chou-shan Islands are virtually controlled by Soviet troops. The article revealed that the Soviet Union has constructed a large air force base and that 126 Russian paratroopers are now stationed there.

The article further reported that Flight Lieutenant Ha-mi-t'e-lo-fu [Chinese approximation of Russian name] commands the paratroopers and the Chinese Communist defense units of the Wan-shan Islands.
